

Hello, I'm

Maggie Jackson

TV PERSONALITY
LIFESTYLE INFLUENCER
CONTENT CREATOR

Let's work together!

I'm a Los Angeles based TV host, micro-influencer and content creator, in addition to my favorite job: mommy to two precious babies. My mission is to help fellow modern mamas optimize our busy lives by sharing healthy lifestyle tips, easy recipes, travel ideas and products to simplify and beautify our every day. Whether women are following along on social media, catching one of my live TV spots or reading my blog, I hope to inspire them to live better and brighter today. If this mission resonates with you, I'd love to work with you and use my creative marketing and journalism skills to amplify your brand to new, like-minded audiences!
